

Commitment to Inclusion

At Celtic Commercial Painting, we realize the benefits that a diverse workforce provides and welcome the differences that each individual offers. We are committed to cultivating an inclusive workforce in order to best serve the diverse community of the Chicagoland area. We strive to provide opportunities regardless of age, race, gender, religion, sexual orientation and disability and realize that with diversity comes productivity.